

Rabbi Binyomin Blau

I want to commend Lema'an Achai for the exceptional work that they do year-round and particularly for their efforts during these trying times. Lema'an Achai is a unique organization as they don't merely assist people in need, they rebuild lives, and they allow families to attain independence. This is the highest form of charity and I wholeheartedly endorse their noble mission.